

Navigating Travel Mishaps

Handling Travel Problems
at the Airport

Key Vocabulary for Travel Issues

Compensation

Money paid to make up for a problem or loss

Reimbursement

Getting money back for expenses

Misplaced Baggage

Luggage that is lost or sent to the wrong place

Layover

A short stop between flights

Claim Form

A document to request help or payment for a problem

Politeness Strategies & Modal Verbs Chart

MODAL VERB	FUNCTION	EXAMPLE
Would	use for polite requests	"Would it be possible to help me?"
Could	use for permission or requests	"Could you please check my ticket?"
Can	use for ability or permission	"Can I change my flight?"
Should	use for giving advice	"You should arrive at least two hours early."

Real-World Scenario

6-Hour Flight Delay

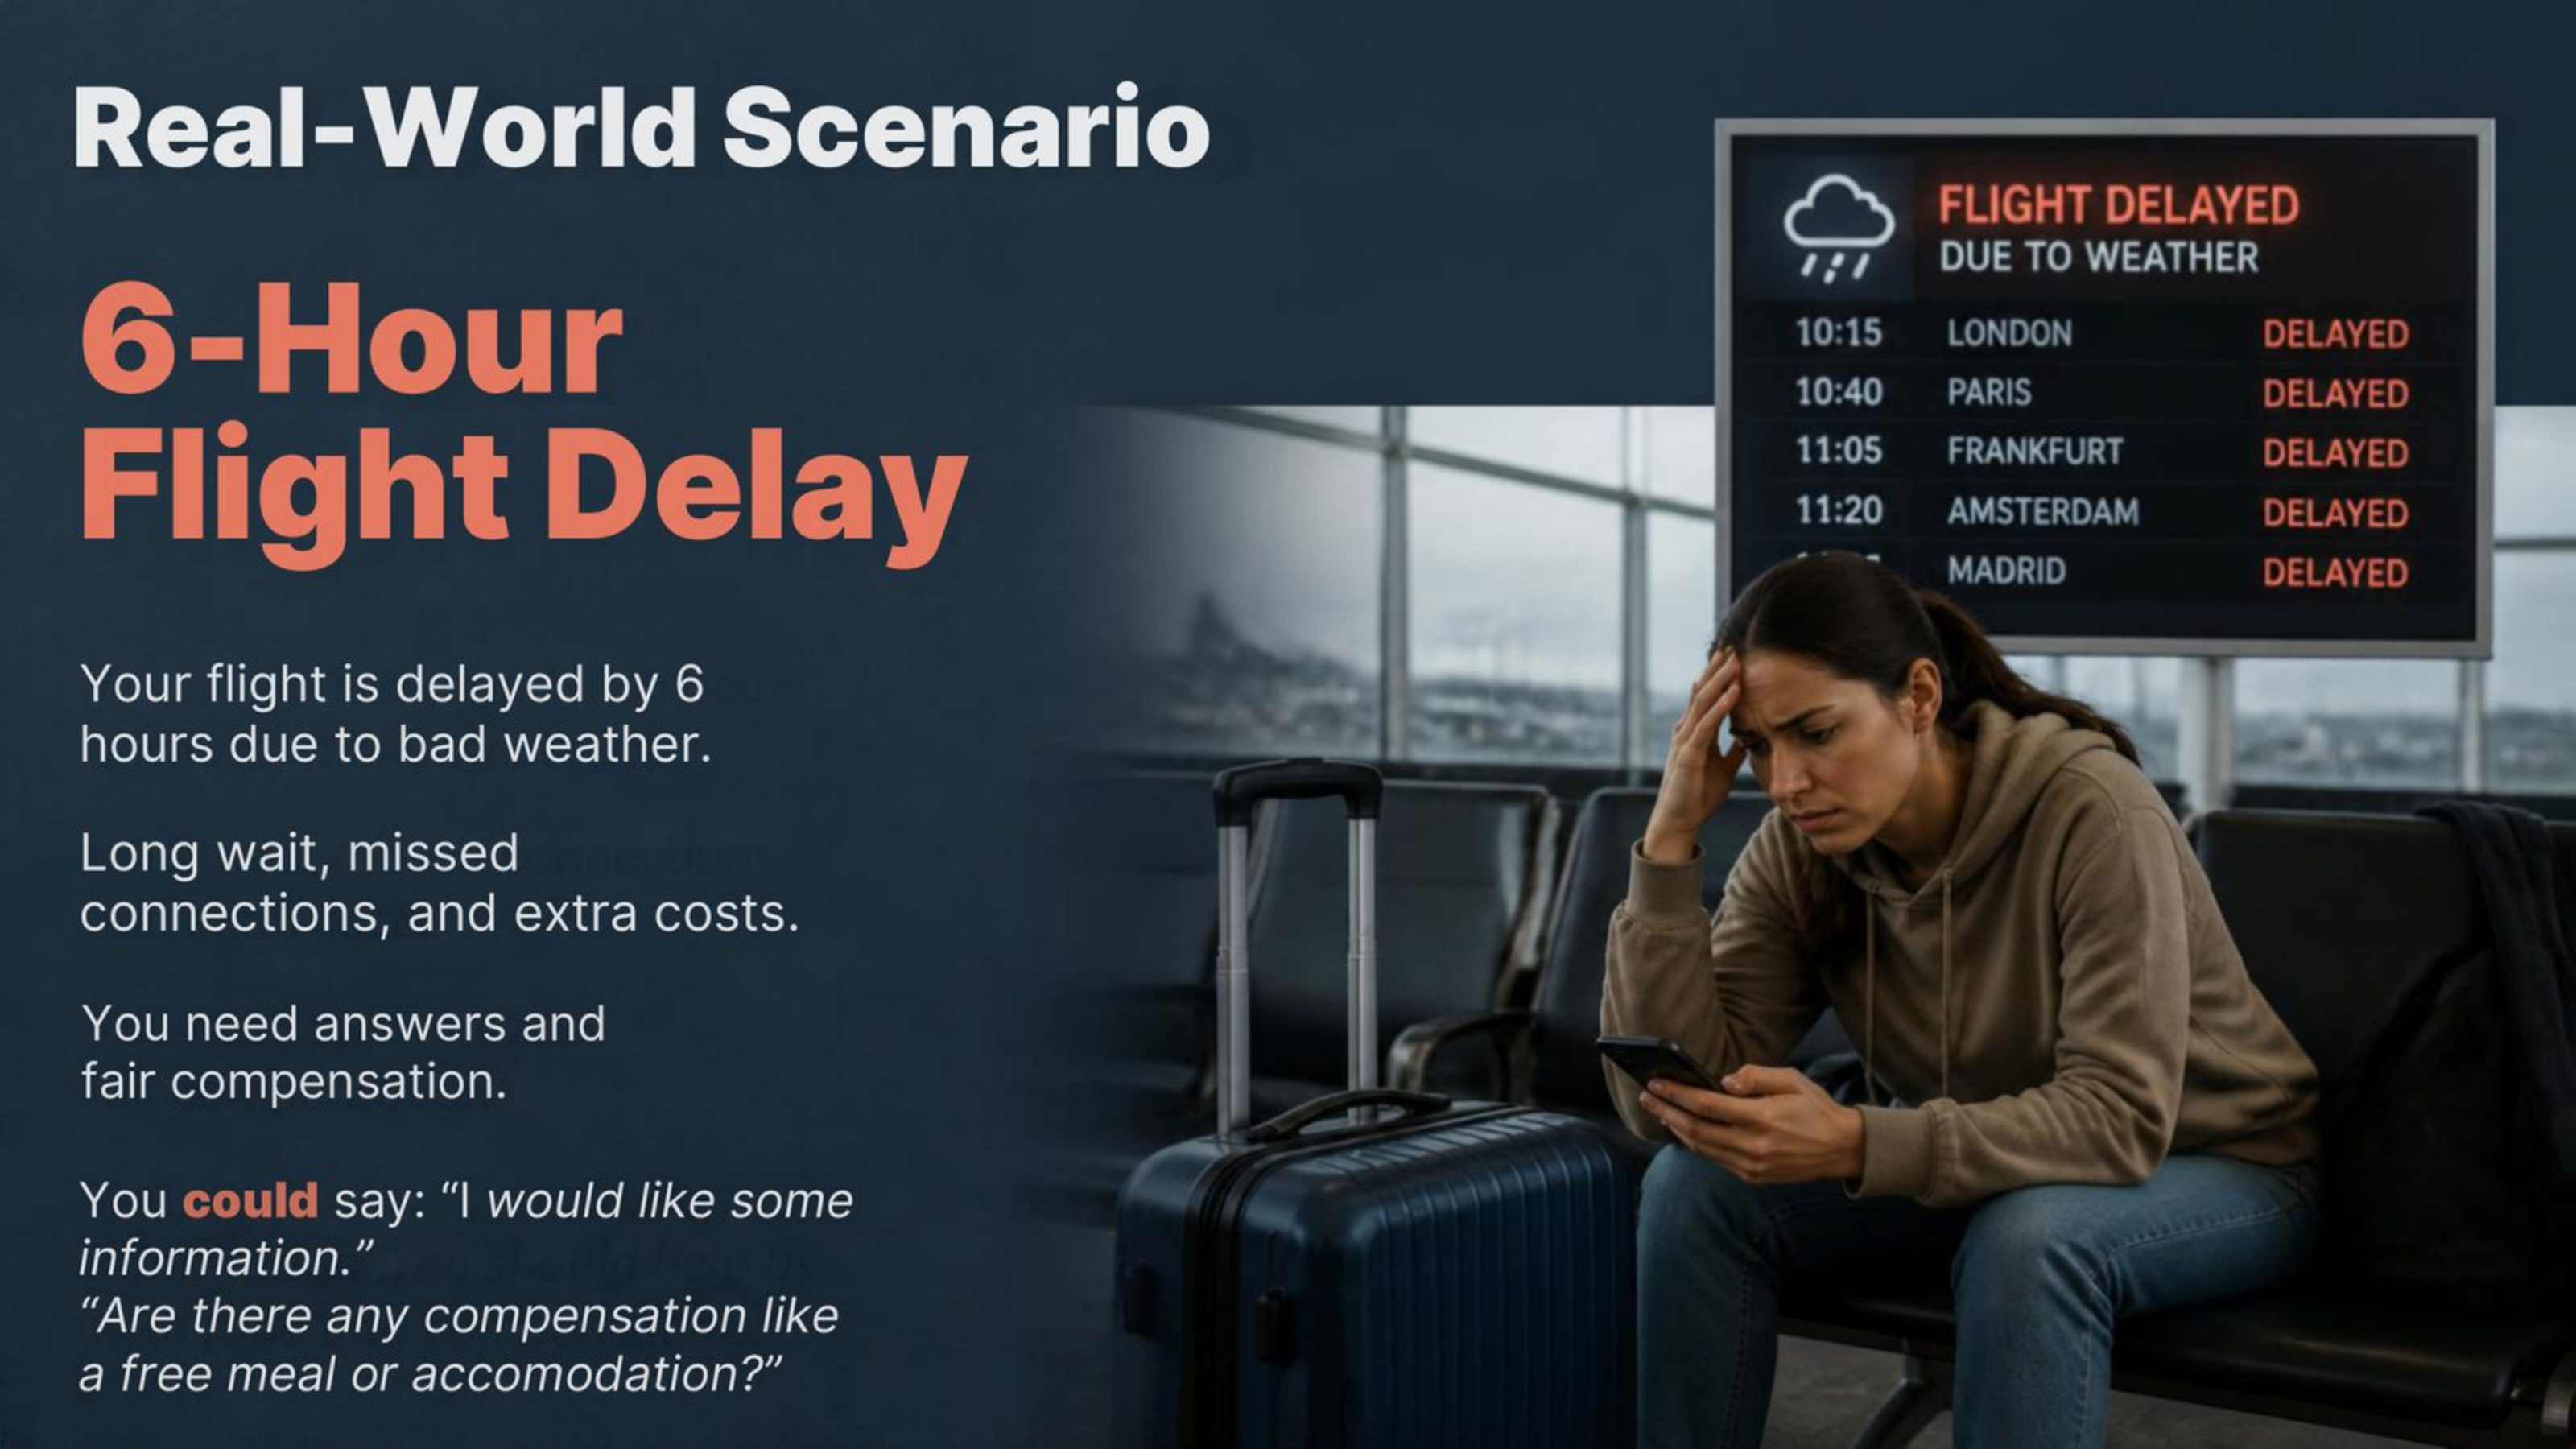

Your flight is delayed by 6 hours due to bad weather.

Long wait, missed connections, and extra costs.

You need answers and fair compensation.

You could say: "I would like some information."

"Are there any compensation like a free meal or accomodation?"

The image shows a woman sitting on an airport bench, looking distressed with her hand on her forehead and checking her phone. A blue suitcase is next to her. In the background, a flight information board displays a 6-hour flight delay due to weather. The board lists destinations: LONDON, PARIS, FRANKFURT, AMSTERDAM, and MADRID, all marked as DELAYED.

	FLIGHT DELAYED DUE TO WEATHER
10:15	LONDON	DELAYED
10:40	PARIS	DELAYED
11:05	FRANKFURT	DELAYED
11:20	AMSTERDAM	DELAYED
	MADRID	DELAYED

Branching Dialogue Exercise

Choose the style that fits the situation.

Would you prefer to say...

POLITE APPROACH

"Excuse me, would it be possible to change my flight?"

"I was wondering if you could help me with my luggage."

"Would you mind checking the status of my bag?"

ASSERTIVE APPROACH

I need you to change my flight.

I need help with my luggage.

Please check the status of my bag.

Pair-Work

Role-Play Prompts

CUSTOMER Your goals

Report the problem politely
Ask about compensation
Express your concerns

Try saying:

I'm sorry, but there's a problem...
What are my options?
Will I be reimbursed?
Can you help me with this?

AIRLINE REPRESENTATIVE Your goals

Explain policies clearly
Offer solutions and next steps
Stay helpful and professional

Try saying:

According to our policy...
Here's what we can do for you.
Let me check the best option.
I'll keep you updated.

Practice both styles and try to solve the problem together.