

The Screen Time Dilemma

B1 • ROLE-PLAY

SCENARIO:

You are discussing screen-time limits at home.

Teenager:

You want more time for games, social media, or videos. Explain why and negotiate a reasonable limit.

Parent:

You are worried about sleep, homework, and health. Suggest fair rules and listen to your teenager.

TASK STEPS:

1. Explain your point of view.
2. Give reasons.
3. Make a suggestion.
4. Negotiate and agree on a plan.

CHALLENGE PROMPTS:

- How many hours are reasonable?
- When should devices be switched off?
- What should happen if someone breaks the rules?

USEFUL PHRASES

- ... In my opinion, ...
- ... From my perspective, ...
- ... On the other hand, ...
- ... I understand your point, but ...
- ... How about ...?
- ... That sounds fair.

Speak for 3–4 minutes

Tech Detox Advice

B1 • ADVICE ROLE-PLAY

SCENARIO:

A student feels burnt out after spending too much time online.

ROLE: STUDENT A

Student A: Explain how you feel. Mention sleep, stress, concentration, or tiredness.

ROLE: STUDENT B

Student B: Give helpful recommendations. Use should, ought to, and had better.

TASK STEPS:

1. Describe the problem.
2. Ask for advice.
3. Give at least three recommendations.
4. Decide which advice is most useful.

LANGUAGE FOCUS:

Use: You should ... /
You ought to ... /
You had better ...

CHALLENGE PROMPTS:

- What could the student change today?
- Which apps or activities should they reduce?
- How can they relax without a screen?

USEFUL PHRASES

In my opinion, ...

From my perspective, ...

On the other hand, ...

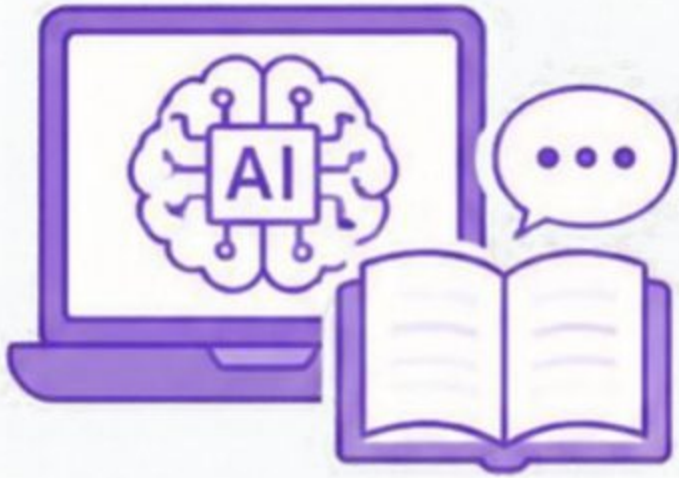

You should ...

You ought to ...

You had better ...

Speak for 3–4 minutes

AI in Education Debate

Should students use AI tools for learning and homework?

Student A – PRO:

Argue that AI tools can support learning, explain difficult ideas, give feedback, and save time.

Student B – AGAINST:

Argue that AI tools can reduce independent thinking, create unfairness, and lead to copying.

DEBATE STEPS

1. Prepare two arguments.
2. Give an example.
3. Respond to the other opinion.
4. Give a final conclusion.

DISCUSSION PROMPTS

- Can AI help students learn better?
- Is using AI always honest?
- What rules should schools have?

USEFUL PHRASES

“

In my opinion, ...

From my perspective, ...

On the other hand, ...

I agree because ...

I'm not sure I agree.

For example, ...

”

Speak for 4–5 minutes

Social Media vs. Reality

B1 • DISCUSSION

How different is people's online presence from their real life?

DISCUSSION PROMPTS

1 Why do people post only the best moments?

2 Can social media affect confidence?

3 What can be real and what can be edited?

4 How can we have healthier online habits?

USEFUL PHRASES

- ... In my opinion, ...
- ... From my perspective, ...
- ... On the other hand, ...
- ... I see what you mean, but ...
- ... For me, ...
- ... That's a good point.

PAIR TASK

Compare online life and real life. Give examples, agree or disagree politely, and suggest one healthy habit.

REFLECTION

One thing I want to change about my digital habits is ...

Speak for 4–5 minutes